Important Information about the Substitutions.

- After April 28, 2006, the effective date of the substitutions, the subaccounts which invest in the Replaced Funds will no longer be available through your variable life insurance policy.
- Prior to the effective date of the substitutions and for thirty days thereafter you may transfer amounts allocated to a subaccount which invests in a Replaced Fund to any other subaccount or the fixed account free of charge and any such transfer will not count as a transfer when imposing any applicable restriction or limit on transfers.
- On the effective date of the substitutions, all amounts you have allocated to the subaccount which invests in a Replaced Fund will automatically be reallocated to the subaccount which invests in a corresponding Substitute Fund. Thereafter, all future allocations directed to a subaccount which invests in a Replaced Fund will be automatically allocated to the corresponding Substitute Fund.
- You will not incur any fees or charges or any tax liability because of the substitutions, and your policy value immediately before the substitutions will equal your policy value immediately after the substitutions.
- The total expenses of each Substitute Fund are less than or equal to the total expenses of the corresponding Replaced Fund. The fees and expenses of each Substitute Fund are more fully described in the Substitute Fund’s prospectus.

- The investment objective and policy of each Substitute Fund is substantially the same as, similar to or consistent with the investment objective and policy of the corresponding Replaced Fund. The investment objective of each Substitute Fund is more fully described in the Substitute Fund's prospectus.
- If you have not already received prospectuses for the Substitute Funds, they accompany this supplement. Read these prospectuses carefully before deciding what to do with amounts allocated to the subaccounts which invest in the Replaced Funds. If you need another copy of the prospectuses, please contact our Customer Service Center at 1-877-866-5050 and we will send them to you.

Substitute Fund Fees and Expenses. Please see the prospectuses for the Substitute Funds for more information concerning these fees and expenses.

Substitute Fund Investment Advisers/Subadvisers and Investment Objectives. The investment advisers/subadvisers and investment objectives of the Substitute Funds are shown in your variable life insurance prospectus and the prospectuses for the Substitute Funds. Please see the prospectuses for the Substitute Funds for more information concerning their investment advisers/subadvisers and investment objectives.

Not all of these funds may be available through your variable life insurance policy. Please refer to your product prospectus for information about the funds available to you.

Variable life insurance policy owners who have policy value allocated to one or more of the subaccounts which correspond to these funds may leave their policy value in those subaccounts, but future allocations and transfers into those subaccounts will be prohibited. If your most recent premium allocation instructions includes a subaccount which corresponds to one of these funds, premium received after April 28, 2006, which would have been allocated to a subaccount corresponding to one of these funds will be allocated on a pro rata basis among all the other available subaccounts in which your policy value is allocated. If there are no other such subaccounts, you must provide us with alternative allocation instructions or the premium payment will be returned to you. Your failure to provide us with alternative allocation instructions and our return of your premium payment(s) may result in your policy entering the 61 day grace period and/or your policy lapsing without value.
